SOMERVILLE GALLERY,

No. 82 Fifth Avenue,

WHERE THEY WILL BE

SOLD AT AUCTION,

ON

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 4th, 1875.

R. SOMERVILLE, AUCTIONEER.

To the Art Public.

SAMUEL P. AVERY, in anticipation of certain changes in his business, and intending hereafter to devote himself to the importation and sale of Works of Art of the highest class only, has determined to make a PUBLIC EXHIBITION AND SALE of his entire collection of exclusively foreign paintings.

They number nearly One Hundred, and include good examples of the French, Belgian, German, Spanish, and Italian Schools. He will not attempt to praise these works, they will be judged upon their merits. But it may not be improper to state that every Painting is his property, nothing has been added from outside sources, they were either painted expressly to his order, or selected by him in Europe; they have never been in other hands, neither have they been offered at auction or ever exposed for sale except in his private rooms. Many of them are the latest works of the Artists, and therefore they are to the public essentially a new collection.

In consideration of the precarious chances, at this time, of an Auction honestly conducted, Mr. AVERY reserves to himself the right to put a reservation upon a few important works, or to withdraw them at the sale, should no bid be made approximating to their first cost. But the greater part will be put up in good faith, without any reserve, with a full reliance upon the appreciation and support of a generous public.

ALL PURCHASES WILL BE DELIVERED IN THE CITY
FREE OF CHARGE.
